Osaka School of International Public Policy (OSIPP)
Guidelines for Applicants

*This Guideline for Applicants is a translation from the original and shall not be regarded as official documentation. The English text has been provided merely as a reference. Please note that any official rules are based solely on the Japanese text.

Admission Policy

In order to achieve personnel development defined in its education objectives, Osaka University accepts individuals who, in the course at undergraduate school or master's degree course at graduate schools, acquired basic academic skills, expertise, an attitude of voluntarily learning, and are eager to find and explore problems. In order to select such students properly, graduate schools select students through a variety of screening methods.

In order to nurture personnel who meet its educational objectives, OSIPP carefully selects persons with the following qualities, in accordance with Osaka University's Admission Policy.

- Individuals interested in public policy issues such as peace and security, environmental issues, economic development, and the protection of human rights
- Individuals aspiring to unravel and clarify such issues from a variety of perspectives
- Individuals wishing to actively discuss with others, making use of their knowledge and points of view
- Individuals wishing to take initiative in solving public policy issues
- Individuals who are interested in languages, especially English, who wish to improve their proficiency and actively share their ideas with the world

In order to select such individuals for entry into its master course, OSIPP requires applicants to take an examination to measure English proficiency, and conducts an oral examination based on a submitted research proposal. For entry into the doctoral course, applicants must also submit a master's thesis or other equivalent document.

- Regarding English proficiency, applicants are required to have achieved a certain level in reputable tests, such as TOEFL, TOEIC, and IELTS.
- The research proposal must contain a logical and persuasive explanation regarding the topic the applicant plans to conduct research on after admission, as well as their awareness of the issues associated with the topic, and intended methodology.
- The oral examination tests the applicant's ability in terms of what is contained in their research proposal, as well as their communication skills in persuasively conveying their assertions and accurately answering questions from the examiners.
- The Master's thesis (or equivalent document) is assessed by faculty members based on their professional perspectives.

【Tuition Fee Exemption for International Honors Students】

Osaka University has a tuition fee exemption system (Tuition Fee Exemption for International Honors Students) for privately-funded international students who are of excellent academic standing in the graduate school entrance examinations. The aim of this system is to further strengthen research capabilities and promote the acceptance of international students. This entrance examination is subject to the Tuition Fee Exemption for International Honors Students. Successful applicants for this program/course qualify for the tuition fee exemption under this system.

1. Eligible Persons : Students who fall under all of the following:
 - (i) Those whose status of residence is "Student"
 - (ii) Those who are not receiving financial aid for tuition fees, such as Japanese Government Scholarship Students (MEXT students) or foreign government-sponsored students, etc.
 - (iii) Those who are not receiving financial aid equivalent to the amount of tuition fees to cover such fees from scholarship foundations, etc.
2. Exemption Detail: Full tuition exemption
3. How to be notified of exemption decision: The number of students who are eligible for exemption will be determined based on the results of the entrance examination. After screened by OSIPP, successful candidates will be notified individually. (Notification will not be made to anyone other than those eligible for the exemption.)

I Number to Be Admitted in Each Department (Major Area)

Department (Major area)	Number to be admitted
International Public Policy	A few students in each department
Comparative Public Policy

1. Applicants are to select the department they wish to apply for from the two majors listed above. Please determine which academic member you wish to have as your supervisor by referring to the research topics listed in the "教員スタッフ (Academic Staff)", and select the department which the first-choice academic member belongs. For the second-choice faculty member, you may select an academic member who belongs to a different department.

1. How to Conduct Oral Examinations and Connection Tests

The oral examination will be administered online. We ask that all applicants participate in the Connectivity Test.

The examination will be held using Zoom Cloud Meetings (hereafter referred to as Zoom).

Applicants should clear their schedules for the entire day on the following dates.

Applicants are to use your own computer or other equipment to take the examination and are to take the oral examination from the examinee's own home or at a location with a good internet connection. However, the following conditions must be met in order to take the examination.

- (a) The applicant must have a good Internet connection.
- (b) It must be an enclosed space that cannot be seen from the outside and can be used as a private room during the examination.
- (c) The space must be at least as quiet as a room in a residence, with no sound leaking outside.
- (d) Earphones or headphones may not be used during the examination.

Applicants will be notified of their examination time on Zoom by email.

Times are JST.

Connectivity Test	Thursday, 27 June 2024
	We ask that all applicants participate in the Connectivity Test. Applicants are to connect to Zoom using your own computer or other equipment from the location they plan on taking the oral examination.
Oral examination dates	Saturday, 6 July 2024
	Applicants who are unable to take the oral examination due to connection problems on the day of the entrance examination will be allowed to take a follow-up examination. In case of connection trouble, please keep the supplementary examination and the supplementary examination reserve date listed in the application guideline "II Schedule for Entrance Examination" open all day.

2. Preparation needed for the online oral examination

To take the oral examination online, applicants must be able to converse with the oral examination interviewer using video and audio without any connectivity issues. The video and audio must be clear with little to no lag or disruption for both the applicant and the oral examination interviewer. Before the Connectivity Test date, be sure to install Zoom on the device to be used during the oral examination. Refer to the Zoom System Requirements and be sure to have an Internet connection and any equipment necessary. Avoid 3G connections and use 4G/LTE as much as possible. Be sure to meet the recommended standards in the Processor and RAM Requirements section.

3. Coming to OSIPP and taking the online examination at OSIPP

If you do not have the necessary Internet connection to take the online examination, you may come to OSIPP to take the online examination (no connection test is required for those who come to OSIPP).

In addition, applicants within Japan who have a poor connection on the Connectivity Test or the oral examination may be asked to come and take the oral examination online at OSIPP.

Applicants who come to OSIPP are not required to take the test in person, but are required to take the online test in a classroom at OSIPP using a PC provided by OSIPP.

In principle, applicants taking the oral examination from overseas will connect from the location they are in.

4. Misconduct relating to the oral examination

The applicant's identity will be verified at the beginning of the oral examination. The oral examination will be recorded by OSIPP. If any misconduct is identified, the acceptance will be withdrawn and severe disciplinary action will be taken even if the applicant is admitted, such as discontinuing admission. Do not commit misconduct.

Misconduct includes the following acts: the applicant or a person instructed by the applicant recording the audio or taking a video of the oral examination content in any way; verbally leaking information on the oral examination during the examination period including the supplementary dates and additional dates; cheating during the oral examination using electronic devices such as a computer or smartphone, documents, notes, or paper; and acts that cause suspicion of cheating (in principle, looking at the research proposal is not permitted unless the applicant has permission from the interviewer). If any misconduct is identified, the acceptance will be withdrawn and severe disciplinary action will be taken even if the applicant is admitted, such as discontinuing admission. Do not commit misconduct.

V Application Materials

1. Application form and curriculum vitae (use the form provided)

Applicants should list a phone number and email address where they can be reached at any time in case there are connectivity issues during the online examination.

Include a 5.5 cm (H) x 4.5 cm (W) photo of the applicant's upper body without hats, taken within the last three months, on the space provided on the application form.

2. Academic transcripts issued by a university or specialist college, academic transcript of a master course, and certificate of completion (or expected completion)

In the case of graduation from overseas universities (including specialist colleges or equivalent institutions), also submit a certificate of the degree awarded.

(1) The documents must be originals or certified originals written in Japanese or English. Photocopies are not permitted.

(2) If application materials are in a language other than English, a Japanese translation by the applicant must be attached. OSIPP may request a translation certified by a government or public organization.

(3) Submit all transcripts from all universities and graduate schools you are currently attending or have attended. In the following cases also submit transcripts for the period you were enrolled.

- If you have a university to study abroad
- If there is a Credited Auditing Period
- Completion (or expected completion) from multiple universities due to double degree programs and joint degree programs.
- Transferring to a university from another academic institution.
- In the case of voluntary withdrawal from a university or graduate school, submit the academic transcripts for the time enrolled. If academic transcripts cannot be obtained, submit a certificate of voluntary withdrawal.

(4) International students may be asked for proof of Japanese proficiency.

3. English proficiency score of at least one of the following examinations: TOEFL, TOEIC, or IELTS (scores of two or more examinations may be submitted)

The examination date shown on the certificate must be within five years from the time of application to be valid.

The types of scores to be submitted and the method of submission are as follows.

	Types of Scores Accepted	How to apply (Submit by one of the following methods)
TOEFL	"Institutional Score Report" "Test Taker Score Report" "Examinee Score Report"	The applicants request ETS to send directly to OSIPP ^{※1} (the PDF will be delivered to OSIPP within approximately 2 weeks). The applicants should request ETS to send the original paper directly to OSIPP whenever possible, as it may take a long time for the original paper to be delivered to the candidate by mail. The applicants should complete the procedure for mailing the paper to himself/herself and submit the original paper mailed from ETS to OSIPP ^{※2}
TOEIC	"Official Score Certificate"	Submit the original paper mailed by ETS to OSIPP. ^{※2} In the case of taking the examination after April 2023, the digital certificate (the one with the QR code) ^{※3} sent to the examinee from ETS must be printed by the applicants and submitted to OSIPP (OSIPP will check the QR code against the digital certificate).
IELTS	"Test Report Form"	The applicants should complete the procedure of mailing the paper to himself/herself and submit the original paper mailed by IELTS to OSIPP. ^{※2} The applicants requests IELTS to send the paper directly to OSIPP ^{※1} (the paper will be delivered to OSIPP).
※1	Addressee code, etc. : TOEFL・・・DI Code:7803、Department code:99、 IELTS・・・To Osaka University, OSIPP
※2	The original documents submitted by applicants will be returned with the examination voucher when it is sent. For applicants residing overseas, the original score will be returned after the announcement of successful applicants in the second screening. (Please note that as a rule, scores sent directly from the test administration organization will not be returned.)
※3	Since the basic rule is to submit the original paper version, PDFs printed by the applicants themselves will not be accepted in principle. However, only for TOEIC, printed submission of digital certificates is acceptable because OSIPP can verify the contents by reading the QR code on the score.

4. Master's thesis

Submit 3 copies (photocopies are permitted) of up to 2 master's theses or other documents for evaluation.

In principle, when submitting it written in languages other than Japanese or English, please attach a Japanese or English translation. Please note that the submitted thesis or documents will not be returned to the applicant.

5. Research proposal

Submit 7 copies (photocopies are permitted, include your name and research title in all copies) of the research proposal. The original copy should have a cover page using the prescribed format of OSIPP.

- The research proposal should be in Japanese or English.
- Prepare the research proposal on A4-sized paper (approximately 30 horizontal lines) using word processing software such as Microsoft Word. The content should be approximately 5,000 Japanese characters or 1,600 English words, and under 6 pages (strictly required) excluding the cover page and including work cited and footnotes.
- The content should clearly outline research conducted to date and what the applicant would like to research based on 1. (1) and (2), 2 (A), and (B) (1) and (2) below. Please write a research proposal that can be easily understood by non-specialists.

1. The current state of your research

- (1) Describe your research background, question, solutions, objective(s), methodology, characteristics and originality, referring to the existing academic literature.
- (2) Outline your research in progress and any research findings, and describe them in connection with what you have stated in (1).

2. Your research plan in the Doctoral Course

A. Research background

Based on the current state of your research you have described in 1, explain your research plan, research question, issues that need to be addressed, and how you have generated the ideas, referring to the existing academic literature.

B. Research objective(s) and content

- (1) Please state your research objectives, methods, and content.
- (2) Specifically, what will be elucidated and to what extent will it (they) be pursued during the doctoral course?

Please note that the research proposal will not be returned.

6. Examination admission card

7. Examination fee: 30,000 yen

Please pay the examination fee using the Examination Fee Payment System (the applicant is responsible for the system fee). After the payment is completed on the system, please download the receipt of the examination fee payment (PDF file) from the URL in the email you receive after payment, or from the "Go to login screen" in the procedure instructions, print it on A4 size paper, and submit it together with other application materials.
